as they present:

Stuttering: The Road to Empowerment

Saturday, October 3, 2009, 9:00am . 4:00pm
University of Buffalo (South Campus), School of Medicine, Room 144 Farber Hall

About the workshop

This is an informative, entertaining, and interactive workshop that deals with stuttering up close and personal. The workshop confronts directly issues about stuttering that stand in the way of successful living, personal growth, and happiness. Participants learn ways to become empowered to take control of their speech and their lives!

Lee has been presenting workshops for NSA for several years. His workshops are not only fun and entertaining but also educational, provocative and challenging. Lee's style and approach make these workshops a must for both seasoned NSAer's and first timers alike.

About the Presenter

Dr. Lee Reeves is a veterinarian and is the founder of the Dallas Chapter of the National Stuttering Association in Dallas, Texas. He has been actively involved with support groups for persons who suffer from stuttering for over thirty years and is a past Chairman of the Board of Directors of the NSA. Lee has been a frequent speaker on the subject of stuttering at meetings for Speech-Language Pathologists, local support groups, and various church and service organizations.
