PRACTICAL MEMORY IMPROVEMENT WORKSHOP

A description of the memory system will be presented including: How we remember information and why we forget. The participants will be provided many activities to illustrate how powerful mnemonic strategies can be and how to teach these techniques to their students/clients in relevant content areas.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Participants will:

1. Identify and describe the human memory system
2. Identify ways to remember and the reasons we forget information
3. Learn practical strategies to improve student's memory skills
4. Be able to apply mnemonic strategies to learning content areas

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER:

Ann Suchyna, MA has been a school psychologist for over 17 years and has taught psychology courses at local colleges. Ann is currently President of ATS Educational Services and produces the Game Club Programs, games designed to facilitate learning through a motivating format.
